Pause for Thought – (1st August)

Let us not forget that life is short and passes by very quickly. It has no second act or repeat performance and it is all too easy to become entangled in the things that are passing away. That is why it is important to make good use of the time God gives us. Wouldn't it be great at the end of life to look back on our days on earth and be able to say: I lived by Christian values: I was a good parent who reared the family as best I could. I always offered help where it was needed. I valued people not for what they earn or their social standing, but for who they are in the sight of God.

Pause for Thought – (8th August)

Blessed are the faithful: they are like safe anchors in a world of broken mooring. Blessed are the just: they are to society what leaven is to bread. Blessed are the generous: they keep alive our faith in the essential goodness of people. Blessed are the caring: they shine like beacons in a world darkened by indifference. Blessed are the genuine: they glow like gems in a world of falseness. Blessed are those who are not afraid of sacrifice: on the day of the harvest they will sing for joy. And blessed are those who refuse to look back: they will be found worthy of the Kingdom of heaven.
