

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

17th July 2022

Last week with the parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus invites us to love others. In the first reading of today we see the blessing that can be associated with acts of charity. Abraham showed kindness to the strangers and for that he and his wife Sarah were blessed with a son in their old age.

However, we cannot truly love others if we do not love God. It is the love we have for God that enables us to go out of our way to help someone in need because we can see God in them. It is the same love that prevents us from offending our neighbour as the Responsorial psalm highlights. It is the love of God that propelled St. Paul to happily undergo many sufferings on account of Christ and to inspire multitudes. When we love God, we become more like God who is Love.

But we can only grow in love of God when we come to Him and seek to be in his presence. Often in our busy lives, it may be difficult to seek the Lord as we may get carried away with work, family and many other things that battle for dominance in our lives. Our work, family, relationships, are all good. However, these things must not divert our attention from God. Jesus commended Mary who has 'chosen the better part' by sitting at the Lord's feet and listening to him. How often do I spend time before the Blessed Sacrament in silent meditation?

Francis Ezeani

Alpha Course

St Edwards & St. Mark’s parish in Windsor is offering the Alpha Course beginning 20th September from 19:00. After a huge response in 2019, we had to put the programme on hold due to the pandemic, so now we are very excited to be offering Alpha again, in person each week, in the St. Edward’s Parish Centre.

Alpha is a 10 week course that explores life’s big questions, in an open, non-judgmental and safe place. We’ll be discussing questions like: ‘Is there more to life than this?’ ‘Does God exist?’ ‘Why did Jesus have to die?’ and ‘Why is there so much suffering in the world?’

Millions of people have already tried Alpha in over 100 countries and languages around the world - so why not you? Perhaps you have a friend or family member who has fallen away from the faith during the pandemic, doesn’t feel as connected to the church as they once did, or maybe has never truly answered life’s big questions for themselves -- please invite them, we’d love to host them too!

To RSVP, please follow this link:

Strategy and Stewardship Team

The leadership team would like to establish a Strategy and Stewardship Team. The purpose of this team would be to look at the long-term vision of what we want as a parish community and how we are to deepen our mission as being authentic disciples of Jesus Christ. To do this, we need to look at our community and how we can achieve this vision and build a stronger relationship with Jesus and our faith. The remit of the team will be to look at areas of parish life, ponder on what is good, see what is lacking, and what needs to be established over the next few years. Anne Dowling is going to lead this team of about ten people.

If this is something that you would be interested in or would simply like to find out more, please speak to either Anne annedowling@fairstar.co.uk or Canon David
